

NKDEP

National Kidney Disease
Education Program

Live Read Radio Scripts

Do not air before May 15, 2004
No Kill Date

:15 If you have diabetes or high blood pressure, or a family member with kidney failure, ask your doctor to test you for kidney disease today. Call 1-866-4KIDNEY for more information. A message from the U.S. Department of Health and Human Services.

---

:20 If you have diabetes or high blood pressure, or a family member with kidney failure, you have a higher chance of developing kidney disease. Ask your doctor to test you for kidney disease today. Call 1-866-4KIDNEY for more information. A message from the U.S. Department of Health and Human Services.

---

:30 If you have diabetes or high blood pressure, or a family member with kidney failure, you have a higher chance of developing kidney disease. Early kidney disease has no symptoms, so it's important to talk to your doctor or healthcare professional about getting tested. Kidney failure can be prevented. To learn more, call toll-free 1-866-4KIDNEY. You have the power to prevent kidney disease. A message from the U.S. Department of Health and Human Services.